The Chapel Path - A hiking path for body and soul

Nine places of peace and power in the Wildkogel Arena: In Neukirchen am Grossvenediger, there is a very special path, where the earthly and heavenly touch one another, be that in the snowy depths of winter or in the lush green of summertime. Aside from being a conventional hike, the Chapel Path is also regenerating for body and soul. At each of the chapels, one of the 10 Commandments has been reformulated into a Good Wish, intended to accompany each of us along our (life's) journey. The starting point for the Chapel Path is the parish church in Neukirchen. The path leads in the direction of Wald im Pinzgau, passing the Todes-, Schloss-, Hubertus-, the small Neukirchen-, Krausen- as well as Scheffaukapelle chapels along the way. The hike then continues in the direction of Sulzau, bringing us to the Christophorus- and Siggenkapelle chapels. Finally we will come to the Berndlkapelle in Sulzau.

The path is about 17.5 km long, though you can also enjoy the Chapel Path in several stages.

Walking time is 4 – 4 1/2 hours.

Culinary treats from the Pinzgau "cookbook" await you at Hotel Hubertus by the Hubertuskapelle chapel, Gasthof Friedburg next to the Christophoruskapelle, as well as Gasthof Siggen by the Siggenkapelle.
